Dear,

We are delighted to announce that Nestlé FoodServices is leading the way as the first manufacturer to join Foodservice Rewards®. A great new loyalty programme that rewards you with points for buying the products you already buy!

How it works is simple. You earn points on Nestlé FoodServices products and other participating companies you use in your business every day, which can be redeemed for fantastic rewards such as once-in-a-lifetime experiences, luxury holidays, electronic goods, foodservice equipment and more!

It's free to join and to help you get started you can earn 250 bonus points when you register online and enter the promotional code on the enclosed enrolment card.

Over the next few months you'll start to see dozens of your favourite Nestlé FoodServices products, carrying Foodservice Rewards® distinctive yellow label. Each label is worth points towards your choice of reward, so enter the code online at www.foodservicerewards.com and start collecting today!

This is our way of saying thanks for your continued custom, so for more information and to register log on to www.foodservicerewards.com and we'll welcome you with 250 bonus points.
